

Dhiaga

Dhiaga Wines (dee-a-ga) are thrilled to be able to donate a dozen mixed wines from the range. Our grapes are sourced from local growers in Western Victoria and made with minimal intervention, no filtration and some with no preservatives. Dhiaga was started by Australia/Irish couple Justin Purser and Joyce Clery. Check out our website and Instagram page.

With Justin's winemaking skills (already a leader in his field) and Joyce's marketing skills with a keen eye for detail and storytelling – you are sure to enjoy this dozen. We have seen the effects of natural disasters and know how hard it can be on families so please bid as much as you can. We will add tasting notes for all the wines in the box.
