WELCOME

---

It has been 30 years since a world record-breaking price of $450,000 was paid for a ram at the Adelaide Ram Sale.

Decades of careful selection have refined the Merino and Poll Merino sires even further, and the market is responding to economic positivity in meat and wool prices. Will we see a new record set at Adelaide this year? Maybe not, but astute buyers will appreciate the value of premium genetics for years to come.

Twenty studs confidently offer the best of their progeny for your consideration. From the Eyre Peninsula, to the Mid-North, Mallee, South East and beyond, these Merino and Poll Merino rams showcase the breed's ability to thrive in a range of conditions.

Find your new genetic influencer here.
