

LUCERNBRAE SNAPSHOT

- Family farm breeding merino sheep for 70 years. Changed to breed plain bodied sheep with minimal skin in 2000 while still producing 6 kg, 19 micron wool and rearing a lamb each year.
- Annual rainfall 375mm
- Breeding Aims – ewe flock with 18 -19 micron silky soft white wool
 - Non mulsed since 2007
 - Dual purpose sheep
- ASBV Flock Profile Results 2019 - EBWR -0.6, Industry average -0.1, Fibre Production Index 129, Industry average 126: Merino Production Index 141, industry average 132.00 and Dual purpose index 131, with Industry average 124.
- Ovine Brucellosis and OJD MN3 accredited