 - a. Yard = Y
 - b. Paddock = P
 - c. Cattle = C
 - d. All-round = A

 2. Training
 - a. Started working = S/W
 - b. Early training = E/T
 - c. Moderately trained = M/T
 - d. Fully trained = F/T

 3. Farm/station working experience
 - a. Limited = LIM
 - b. Moderate = MOD
 - c. Capable = CAP
 - d. Very experienced = V/E

- Please ensure that you have a bidding number before the auction begins.
- GST will be added to the sale price, except in the case that the Vendor is listed as not registered for GST.
- Wagga Yard Dog Club will issue a tax invoice at the time of payment.
- Accounts must be paid on the day of the auction. Payment types accepted - EFTPOS, cheque or cash.
- At the fall of the hammer, the dog then becomes the responsibility of the buyer.
- The Wagga Yard Dog Club takes no responsibility for the information provided in this catalogue. Please approach vendors if you require more information.

WAGGA YARD DOG
Standard Terms and Conditions of sale.

1. A vendor is bound by these terms and conditions by offering livestock for sale by auction.
2. A buyer is bound by these terms and conditions by bidding at auction.
3. Subject to any reserve price, and to the right, prior to the fall of the hammer, of the vendor to withdraw any lot without declaring the reserve, the highest bidder shall be the buyer.
4. The auctioneer has the right to bid on behalf of the vendor provided that right is notified prior to the commencement of the sale and is subject to State law.
5. A bid cannot be made or accepted after the fall of the hammer unless, in accordance with these terms and conditions, the auctioneer decides to put the lot up again following a default.
6. The last price called by the auctioneer at the fall of the hammer shall be the amount at which the lot has been sold.
7. In the event of a disputed bid, the auctioneer is the sole arbitrator of the successful bidder or the auctioneer may decide to put the lot up again. The auctioneer's decision is final.
8. The auctioneer may refuse to accept any bid which, in the auctioneer's opinion, is not in the best interests of the vendor and need not give reasons for doing so.
9. A bidder shall be deemed to be a principal unless, prior to bidding, the bidder has given to the auctioneer a copy of written authority to bid for or on behalf of another person.
10. The successful bidder at auction must give to the auctioneer at the fall of the hammer: a) the bid card number which identifies the purchaser; or
b) the name of the person on whose behalf the successful bid was made.
11. The auction shall be conducted on the basis that the bid price shall be exclusive of Goods and Services Tax (GST). GST shall be added after the fall of the hammer for those sales subject to GST.
12. If a buyer does not comply with any of these terms and conditions, which includes the requirements of State law, any dog knocked down to that buyer may be re-sold by public auction or private contract in whatever lots and manner the auctioneer decides. The re-sale may be with or without notice and shall be at the buyer's risk. The buyer is responsible for all loss and expense suffered by the vendor arising out of a re-sale and is not entitled to any resulting profit.

13. The buyer of livestock must pay the agent the full amount of the purchase price in immediate funds on receipt of a tax invoice. Payment is required prior to collection of any dog by the buyer.
14. No person may bid unless, prior to the commencement of the sale, that person has signed the Buyer Registration Form, accepted these terms and conditions and made arrangements satisfactory to the auctioneer for payment for the dog purchased. If bids in breach of this condition are inadvertently accepted, delivery of any dog shall not be given until the purchase money is paid and any law, rule or practice to the contrary is accordingly negated as far as possible.
15. Each buyer acknowledges and agrees that:-
 - a) all dogs sold are open for inspection by appointment prior to the date of the auction, on the day of the auction and will be used in a demonstration on the day of the auction;
 - b) each buyer has had an adequate time to view and inspect any dog purchased prior to the date of the auction;
 - c) they accept the dog in its condition and level of training, which is evident on the day of the auction and are sold with all faults, if any;
 - d) all dogs are purchased at the risk and expense of the buyer upon the fall of the hammer;
 - e) all conditions and warranties expressed or implied by law are hereby excluded from the sale to the extent that the law allows; and
 - f) no compensation shall be given for any faults, imperfections, lack of training, misrepresentation and/or any errors of description.
16. The buyer has responsibility for the prevention of loss or escape (including death) of any dog once it has been collected from the vendor.
17. The buyer agrees that is shall not rely on any statements made by the auctioneer whether in writing or orally as to the description of any level of training of any dog and the Wagga Yard Dog Club shall not be liable for any loss, damage, claim, cost or expense that may arise in any way as a result of the sale of any dog at the Wagga Dog Auction.
18. These terms and conditions do not render the Wagga Yard Dog Club liable to the buyer as vendor nor entitle the buyer to set off against the Wagga Yard Dog Club any right the buyer may have against the vendor or otherwise.
19. The auctioneer has been retained by the vendor as auctioneer for the purpose of selling the dogs comprised in the lots. The terms of engagement between the auctioneer and the vendor do not extend to the provision of advice by the auctioneer to the vendor in relation to the safety or otherwise of the sale ring, the auction facility and the surrounding environments. Neither the auctioneer or Wagga Yard Dog Club shall be liable to the vendor for any loss, damage, claim, cost or expense that may arise in any way as a result of the sale of any dog at the Wagga Dog Auction.
20. If delivery is made to, or possession obtained by, the buyer or its representative before full payment of the Price, then until full payment is received, the buyer:
 - a) does not acquire title to the dog;

- b) holds the dog as bailee only for the vendor;
 - c) must act in a fiduciary capacity in its relationship with the vendor;
 - d) must store the dog separately or so that it is not in contact with any other dog owned by the buyer;
 - e) is responsible for the safety and well-being of the dog and shall be liable for any injury, death or loss or damage caused by the buyer possessing the dog; and
 - f) agrees that the vendor or its agent may repossess and resell the dog and enter property owned or occupied by the buyer or its representative if necessary to do so.
21. The buyer indemnifies the vendor and its agent against any loss, damage, costs, expenses, penalties, fines or claims suffered by the vendor, the agent or any person or entity arising from the vendor exercising its rights under clauses 20.
22. The buyer understands and agrees that interest may be charged at the rate of 12% per annum on any amounts which remain owing by the buyer at any time from the time of the auction.
23. The buyer and the vendor acknowledge that the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 (NSW) sets out that:-
- a) It is an offence against the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 for a person to do any of the following as a result of a collusive practice, or to induce or attempt to induce another person by a collusive practice to do any of the following:
 - i. to abstain from bidding; or
 - ii. to bid to a limited extent only; or
 - iii. to do any other act that might prevent free and open competition.
 - b) Severe penalties may be imposed on persons convicted of collusive practices.
