Herb

Dog. 6.5 Years.

Herb has been an exceptional work dog for me, and this is a regretful sale. He is a strong yard dog & his ability to work a draft coming up to start the lead off is one of his strong points. He will bark on command or if he's in a tight spot to get an effect on the stock. He can work out in the paddock i.e. driving mobs in or out of the yards off a ute or gator. I've had Herb since he was 12 months old & has work in the saleyards, sheep dips, truck work, droving of sheep in & out of yard. He was placed in a yard trial at Wagga, Deni & Hay. Herb has also worked cattle & goats mainly using his bark coming forward with pressure to make the stock move. If casting it's generally quick & direct but always gets the job done. He's happy to work for anyone as my business partner can vouch for using him on numerous occasions when he needs a hand. He's been a great dog for me but as all handlers do, I have young dogs coming on & he's not getting the work he deserves.

1. A vendor is bound by these terms and conditions by offering livestock for sale by auction.
2. A buyer is bound by these terms and conditions by bidding at auction.
3. Subject to any reserve price, and to the right, prior to the fall of the hammer, of the vendor to withdraw any lot without declaring the reserve, the highest bidder shall be the buyer.
4. The auctioneer has the right to bid on behalf of the vendor provided that right is notified prior to the commencement of the sale and is subject to State law.
5. A bid cannot be made or accepted after the fall of the hammer unless, in accordance with these terms and conditions, the auctioneer decides to put the lot up again following a default.
6. The last price called by the auctioneer at the fall of the hammer shall be the amount at which the lot has been sold.
7. In the event of a disputed bid, the auctioneer is the sole arbitrator of the successful bidder or the auctioneer may decide to put the lot up again. The auctioneer's decision is final.
8. The auctioneer may refuse to accept any bid which, in the auctioneer's opinion, is not in the best interests of the vendor and need not give reasons for doing so.
