

The Urangara Merino and Poll Merino Stud, located at Cavendish in South West Vic, was established in 1993 by John and Leanne Huf. Son, Nicholas has since joined the team since 2012. The stud has been classed by Rob Russell, "Sheepscope" for the last 12 years.

Sires having the most influence are from Glenlea Park and Stockman. Pure poll ewes have been added from the Fernleigh and Panorama stud dispersals

Local average rainfall is 600 mm and average flock micron – 19.0

Eye muscle testing was performed on 7/6/21. The average of the group tested is 36 mm, which is expressed as 100%

Gudair vaccinated continuously for last 19 years and is Brucellosis Accredited Free

Awarded 23 Supreme Fleece of the Show Awards, Elders Supreme Clip of the Sale Award (6 times) and winner of 208 Sheep Show Ribbons