DEFINITIONS OF TERMINOLOGY

>> NOTE: THESE DEFINITIONS ARE TO BE USED AS A GUIDE ONLY:

- Buyers must use their own judgement when considering their purchase.
- Approximately 6 weeks should be allowed for a new handler to bond with his/her new dog (bonding time may vary between dogs).

>> STARTING

- Displays an instinct to work and approaches stock according to ability.

>> STARTED

- Has basic commands, (come, sit, stop etc.), some training on a lead.
- Eagerness to work may override obedience.
- Interested in stock and going around them in an enclosed area.
- Works according to natural ability.
- Handlers need to be on foot.
- Short practice lessons / sessions.

>> WELL STARTED

- May be uncomfortable in strange places.
- Confident on a small mob and may not handle a large mob.
- Makes a few mistakes.
- Reasonably obedient depending on levels of desire.
- May need a while to settle when working.
- Brings a small mob of sheep towards handler in easy situations.
- Learning to drive stock but sometimes goes to the head of the mob.
- Needs a firm hand and plenty of praise / encouragement.
- Can be worked from either a car, bike, horse or on foot when settled.

>> TRAINED

- Mature in appearance.
- May still be uncomfortable in strange places.
- Shows confidence in approaching stock that it is familiar with (for example: paddock dog – in paddock, yard dog – in yards)
- Acceptable levels of control.
- Keeness to work and nature will depend on genetic makeup.
- Yard dogs are keen to either force, back & bark when required

SIRE: Becham Gus                      DAM: Youldenvally Dell

COMMENTS: Roo is a very out going little dog which has proven herself to be a driven, highly motivated worker which strives to please in all situations giving her utmost best. Roo is an allround type which presents very well as a young dog that will fulfil long term goals in situations she is put in. Roo has been trained with both verbal voice commands aswell as whistle commands. She shows her natural ability off well with ballancing up to her stock coming across very freely, aswell as a good cover and hold. Roo has been predominantly used and trained with sheep but has been introduced to cattle recently with good results and outcomes. She has a stop/ sit, will cast in the direction she is set up for, barks on command, is not currently backing but comes from strong backing parents, is communal fed with a team of working kelpies, rides on vehicles, side by sides and motorbikes. SIRE: HopkinsRiver Tex      DAM: S/b Titania Park Jill

COMMENTS: Tri is a very easy dog to handle and can be worked by both male and female handlers. She will be a great all rounder. Tri is a little fire cracker in the yards, backs, barks and works the side of the race. She has quickly moved up the ranks in the team. She is a reliable little dog that has plenty of push but is happy to sit down at the back too. She has spent the last season pushing up to the crutching trailer and ve machine. Tri has had minimal paddock experience but is showing great potential and with experience will make a great paddock dog. She reads her stock nicely and has a nice natural drop. She will be an asset to anyone.
