

CATEGORY 2 PLANT

Plant is supplied without the adequate information for safe use. Plant bought in this category should not be used in a work place until the relevant information has been obtained from the supplier.

(eg. manufacturer's operator's manuals, including any conditions for safe use etc.)

Purchaser will receive written advice stating that the plant is being sold without adequate information and should not be used without this information.