

Dolly's
Dream

“After Dolly left us, Kate and I could see that Dolly’s story had touched people everywhere and we felt the best way to remember our beautiful girl was to start a nationwide conversation about the devastating effects of bullying.”

Tick Everett

Dolly's Dream

Dolly's Dream was created by Kate and Tick Everett following the shattering loss of their 14-year-old daughter, Dolly, after ongoing bullying.

Kate and Tick's aim is to prevent other families having to walk this road and experiencing this devastation.

Dolly's Dream is committed to changing the culture of bullying by increasing understanding of the impact of bullying, anxiety, depression and youth suicide – and by providing support to parents.

Support Line

Support from a trained counsellor isn't cheap, and it's not always accessible, which is why we've partnered with Kids Helpline to offer free mental health support.

You don't need a referral, and the line is open to anyone who needs support.

Call 0488 881 033, anytime, for any reason.

Parent Hub

Many parents feel teaching their kids about online safety is important, but they don't quite know how to go about it. That's why we're here.

To help make life a little easier, we've done the research for you and pulled together the most trusted information about online safety and bullying.

Our articles, tips, links and videos will help you have those talks around online safety, bullying, choosing kindness, gaming, tech use and more.

Our workshops

Our online safety and anti-bullying workshops can be tailored to students, parents, teachers as well as the general community.

We know that everyone's level of knowledge of the online world is different, and that's why we adapt our workshops to suit the audience.

Designed by leading experts and delivered by one of our mental health first aid-trained facilitators, our workshops are interactive and engaging, without fear of judgement.

Visit dollysdream.org.au for our list of workshops.

Family Tech Plan

The Family Tech Plan gets families talking in order to find common ground around how to best use technology. From experience and research, we know there are some things that will set you up for success, and we'll step you through our easy online process to tailor a plan just for your family.
