THE DOGS MEETING

The dogs they had a meeting
They came from near and far
Some they came by aeroplane and others by motor car
And as they gathered there at large
An old British Bulldog seemed to be in charge
“Remove your tails and hang them on a hook,
Then enter your name in the attendance book”
And as they were seated there
Each mother, son and sire
A dirty little yellow mongrel yelled..... FIRE!!
Out they rushed and without a look
Grabbed a tail from off the hook
And that is why, to this day when two dogs meet
Whether it be in the country or on a city street
They sniff each others tail more thoroughly than they would a bone
In the hope of finding a tail which is their own.
